

SC Johnson Community Day, 9 June 2008

In 2008, SC Johnson asked Employee Volunteering CiC to organise their annual "Community Day".

175 members of staff from this Surrey-based family company which manufactures household products spent a day working on projects in support of seven local charities:

Parkside (Mencap)
Rowhill Nature Reserve
Stroke Association
Frimley WellBeing Centre
Scout Association
Woodlarks Workshop Trust
Blackwater Valley Countryside Trust

"It was great to feel I could help out" Laura Gordon-Hall, ABM

Volunteers from SC Johnson

"A great day – well organised. Staff were brilliant. I had a thoroughly enjoyable day with total satisfaction in the tasks done." Paula Brett, Reception Team Leader

"Wonderful day, well organised" Katy Cairns

"Very genuine day, where I have given a little service and received so much back. It is my first experience on a Community Day. I will definitely repeat."

Ernesto Argenio, IT Director

"I found it a very rewarding day. It was well organised. It opens your eyes and makes you think. I am so glad to be able to help, if only for a few hours." Lizzie Osel, Facilities/Lab Assistant

Beneficiaries/Community organisations

"Congratulations on the organisation which allowed Stroke survivors and their families (and, undeservedly, ourselves) a wonderful day out at Hampton Court. You even fixed the weather !" Bob Verner-Jeffreys, Volunteer, Stroke Association

"Having Employee Volunteering CiC facilitating this project has meant so much was done in one day, beyond what we thought was possible, and it means a lot to everyone." Andy Blake, District Secretary, Blackwater District Scout Council

"Nothing was too much trouble and the staff at Employee Volunteering CiC went out of their way to ensure everyone enjoyed themselves." Lynda Newman, Blackwater Valley Stroke Club
